IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The British Club General Manager, Sean Boyle awarded the British Empire Medal in Queen's New Year's Honours List 2017

SINGAPORE – The British Club Singapore's General Manager was awarded the prestigious British Empire Medal (BEM) on 30 December 2016 in the Queen's New Year's Honours List 2017.

Sean was awarded the medal in recognition for his numerous years of service to promote British business and support charities in Asia during his 20 years in Singapore. The full list was announced on the official government website of the United Kingdom, www.gov.uk and major media websites, including the London Gazette, Mirror and The Sun.

“On receiving the news, I was overwhelmed and so grateful to have been bestowed this honour. And I thank all those who have supported me over the years in being able to achieve it” says Sean.

The British Empire Medal is a British medal awarded for ‘hands-on’ service to the local community. This could be a long-term charitable or voluntary activity, or innovative work that has made a significant difference. It is a British medal awarded for meritorious civil or military service worthy of recognition by the Crown.
