

MEET YOUR COACH

Part-time Performance Coach

Timoté Loew

Timoté Loew comes from France. He has life long playing experience and over 13 years of coaching practice with players of all levels and ages.

He is internationally certified and specialised in tennis by the “Diplôme d’État Jeunesse, de l’Éducation Populaire et du Sport” in France. In addition, he is certified by the International Tennis Performance Association as a tennis performance trainer.

Professionally qualified, Tim has worked in very well-named academies such as Mouratoglou in France, Justine Henin in Belgium, MIT and Harvard in America. In addition, he has experience working as one of the main coaches in renowned tennis schools in Australia and China.

Timoté is flexible, reliable and possesses excellent time keeping skills. He is enthusiastic, reliable, and responsible. He is passionate about tennis and he will help you meet your expectations.

